

about Lemongrass

Lemongrass Consulting, Inc. provides land development, management consulting, and regulatory compliance planning strategies.

Lemongrass advocates a multi-disciplinary approach to problem solving. Our clients turn work over to us that they simply do not have the time to do. We save them time and money!

Lemongrass Consulting was founded in 2005 by Clovia Hamilton. Clovia has 25 years of experience and a multi-disciplined background in law, engineering, planning, and management.

The firm offers clients a broad range of services that optimize their return on innovation, involvement, and investment.

In 2008, Lemongrass won a Sam Walton Emerging Entrepreneur Award. We have completed the Clean Water Atlanta Small Business Development Program and we completed the Governors Mentor Protégé Program.

We pride ourselves in providing high quality, responsive and responsible results in a soothing, calming, stress-free manner. Our small size enables us to provide close, personal care to our clients!
